

The Housing Opportunities Commission and Montgomery Housing Partnership are pleased to present:

A Dialogue on the Housing Program of the City of Vienna, Austria

with

Wolfgang Förster

*Chief of Housing Research
City of Vienna, Austria*

Wolfgang Förster, Chief of Housing Research and International Relations for the City of Vienna, will present and lead a discussion of one of the world's preeminent affordable housing programs. Vienna is a leader not only on affordability, but also on architecture, green building, energy conservation, resident participation, and economical building technology.

Vienna ranks consistently within the top two or three livable cities in the world. The "social housing" program plays no small part in its success. Please join us.
