- Job Description Summary:

The Office of Housing provides vital public services through its nationally administered programs. It oversees the Federal Housing Administration \(FHA\), the largest mortgage insurer in the world, and regulates important parts of the housing industry. The Office of Housing is committed to building and preserving healthy neighborhoods and communities through homeownership, rental housing, and healthcare opportunities.

The Office of Multifamily Housing is responsible for the overall management, development, direction, and administration of HUD's Multifamily Housing Programs. HUD's Multifamily programs provide mortgage insurance to HUD-approved lenders to facilitate the construction, substantial rehabilitation, purchase and refinancing of multifamily housing projects. MFH is widely responsible for production, asset management and portfolio oversight, and recapitalization of assisted properties, and field operations. As part of the National Housing Act of 1934, Congress created the Federal Housing Administration (FHA) which later became a part of the Department of Housing and Urban Development's (HUD) Office of Housing in 1965.

“The Office of Recapitalization (“Recap”) supports the preservation and recapitalization of federally assisted housing and rental assistance for current and future generations. Recap structures, reviews, and implements transactions to ensure long-term physical and financial viability, often through public-private partnerships and the use of tax-incentivized financing. Recap also implements other affordable housing initiatives which leverage this transactional expertise. Programs currently or recently implemented by Recap include the Rental Assistance Demonstration (RAD), Mark-to-Market (M2M), Section 236 Preservation, Pre-1974 Section 202 Direct Loan Preservation (including SPRAC), Section 202 Capital Advance NOFAs, Tenant and Community Engagement Initiatives, and the Green Retrofit Program.”

- Job Duties:

As a Restructuring Analyst you will:

HUD's Office of Recapitalization is seeking an Underwriter (aka 'Restructuring Analyst') (GS-12) to be based in the Office's Transaction Division located in Washington, DC. This role will include support for the Department's overall goals and will focus specifically on the underwriting and program compliance of affordable housing transactions under the Rental Assistance Demonstration (RAD) program, a high-profile initiative to significantly improve and preserve deeply affordable housing across the country. Duties may include overseeing and underwriting a portfolio of HUD Multifamily assets or public housing properties undergoing RAD conversions, analyzing, and resolving underwriting and policy issues, and providing technical support to various internal and external stakeholders. Applicants with backgrounds in accounting, finance, urban planning, and real estate development are encouraged to apply. Knowledge of affordable housing preservation policy is preferred.

We appreciate your assistance.
