

ONE EDGEWOOD. ONE COMMUNITY.

November Network Night Recap

November 18th Network Night was led by residents Ranell Davis, Antonette Gaskins-James, Lesia Alleyne and Pam Thornton. Ranell cooked delicious barbeque turkey wings and meatballs, macaroni and cheese, broccoli and banana cream pudding.

Personal requests and offers were made during Mini Marketplace. Requests included: getting help to transfer files to a thumb drive; asking for volunteers to help with a Winter Wonderland event; and help organizing an auction to help people who are evicted. Announcements included: a Mobile Farmer's Market on Mondays from 2-5 at the traffic circle; a food drive at 1100 Florida Ave; a mood food workshop as part of the health and wellness circle; and Gnoleba's Youth Dance performance on Saturday November 22.

In the Table Talks, residents discussed details of the Winter Wonderland (join the planning meeting on Nov 20th at 6pm in 611 Community Room), the HELP Auction, and a radio program for Edgewood residents.

Ranell cooked yummy soul food

Three lucky residents won turkeys in the Thanksgiving raffle!

Pam made and shared delicious Juices

Antonette ran the Marketplace Exchange:

Edgewood residents take the time to make personal requests and receive responses from talented and experienced neighbors.

Vivian Johnson, 99 years young, takes part in the One Edgewood Network

Lesia explained the Table Talks:

Network members invited other network members to join them in a small table talk around a topic of importance to them. Many positive next steps flowed from these discussions.

Table Host	Topic	Next Step
Bonnita	HELP—Engage in Lending a Hand	Plan auction to raise money for residents having emergency crisis and evictions
