

Resident Services Coordinator (Full-time temporary position)
Homes for America, Inc.

Do you have a passion for working with seniors and ability to coordinate services that allow them to live their fullest lives with dignity and respect? Homes for America has a great opportunity in beautiful Annapolis, MD to serve as a full-time temporary Resident Service Coordinator through an innovative grant that focuses on supporting senior health so they can age in place. The ideal candidate would be able to engage and motivate seniors to participate in a variety of programming that enhances their lives and have a basic understanding of programs and resources in the Annapolis Metro area that serve senior populations. Homes for America offers a supportive team environment, competitive salary, great benefits, and an opportunity to make an immediate impact on the lives of seniors. If this opportunity speaks to you, please inquire about joining our team by sending your resume and/or questions to Kyle@homesforamerica.org. Full job description available upon request.