If I were mayor I would make sure my people in my community are safe and happy. In my opinion I would let my community get a chance to vote for new things we need or fair rules we need in our community. I would also make sure everyone has fair rights because, without fair rights then what's the point of having the Bill of rights. I wouldn't be a mean Mayor because, nobody likes a mean Mayor. My main task to complete as mayor is to make sure the people in our community have much fun and fairness in our community. I also want our community to be able to express their religion and background history to their friends and family. I would also help my friends and family by giving them a little more freedom because, the government doesn't give us a good amount of freedom. We don't even get to tell kids the truth behind black history. The government is just covering everything up like we don't know anything about black history but we do. I would use my power for the good of things. If people need help getting a home I would make a speech telling the community we need to help people in need of a home and food. Then I would try to provide as much shelter and food for the people in need of a home and food.

And if schools need better materials I would help get them to the school as soon
as possible, because, without the right materials
how are we supposed to ~~teach~~^{teach} kids at school?
If I were Mayor this is what I would do.
