Job Description Summary:

The Office of Housing provides vital public services through its nationally administered programs. It oversees the Federal Housing Administration \(FHA\), the largest mortgage insurer in the world, and regulates important parts of the housing industry. The Office of Housing is committed to building and preserving healthy neighborhoods and communities through homeownership, rental housing, and healthcare opportunities.

The Office of Multifamily Housing is responsible for the overall management, development, direction, and administration of HUD's Multifamily Housing Programs. HUD's Multifamily programs provide mortgage insurance to HUD-approved lenders to facilitate the construction, substantial rehabilitation, purchase and refinancing of multifamily housing projects. MFH is widely responsible for production, asset management and portfolio oversight, and recapitalization of assisted properties, and field operations. As part of the National Housing Act of 1934, Congress created the Federal Housing Administration (FHA) which later became a part of the Department of Housing and Urban Development's (HUD) Office of Housing in 1965.

Job Duties:

HUD's Office of Recapitalization is seeking a Supervisory Recapitalization Program Specialist (GS-14) within its policy team, Program Administration Office (PAO), and the position is located in Washington, DC. This role will provide leadership in the policy development and program implementation focused on the preservation and recapitalization of the HUD-subsidized portfolio through the Rental Assistance Demonstration (RAD), and other programs and initiatives administered by the Office of Recapitalization. Duties will include directly supervising staff performing a variety of policy and programmatic functions in support of the office's programs; representing the office with internal and external stakeholders; overseeing the execution of multiple projects to implement or enhance policies, processes, systems, tools, guidance, or communications; and providing advice and authoritative analysis to the Office of Recapitalization management.

In particular, we are looking for candidates who are passionate about our mission and understand how key operational work is in ensuring our office can implement its mission. In particular, we are looking for candidates who are detail-oriented, talented at relationship management and communications, as well as able to demonstrate initiative on moving key operational items forward.

We appreciate your assistance.
